

Creation or Publication of Job related Materials

Materials developed by a staff member within the scope of his/her employment are the property of the Belmont Public Schools. They may not be utilized without express and written permission from the Superintendent, and in any instance not without credit to the system.

No research may be done with staff or pupils and the results used in the creation and marketing or publishing of such materials without the written permission of the Superintendent. In all instances, no identifying names of students or non-consenting staff are to be used, and credit must be noted to the school system when such permission is granted.
