

Staff Participation in Political Activity

Employees of the Belmont Public Schools have the right to participate in political activity. Such right shall not be exercised on school premises during school hours, use school system facilities, equipment or supplies, or interfere with the performance of school duties.

References:
MGL 71:44