

Homework

The Superintendent shall oversee professional staff in the development of appropriate guidelines for the frequency, quantity and content of homework at all grade levels. Such guidelines shall consider educational goals and academic standards of the district and shall be developmentally appropriate. Homework guidelines shall be published in each school's student handbook.

Teachers will not assign significant homework on religious holidays.

Students who miss schoolwork because of an excused absence, including absence for religious observance, should not be expected to complete homework, study for tests or do other school work during their absence. They shall be given the opportunity to complete assignments and tests within a reasonable time, based on the circumstances.

Teachers may assign make up work, and grant full or reduced credit, at their discretion, for students who miss work because of unexcused absences.
